Why? Seriously, Why??

It seems that Mev is more playful
than other men his age

I think that can be part of his charm and a strength but ..

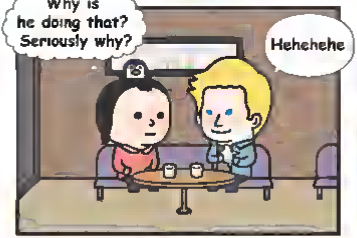
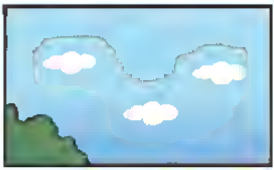
sometimes



... I wonder why he does such strange things.



Last weekend,
we spent time at his mother's.

He wanted to tidy up his old stuff that he kept in boxes
while I stayed in the house

After a while

I was wondering why he took so long.

So I went to the garage.

I couldn't see him there

I wandered around inside the house and garden to find him but couldn't even find a hair

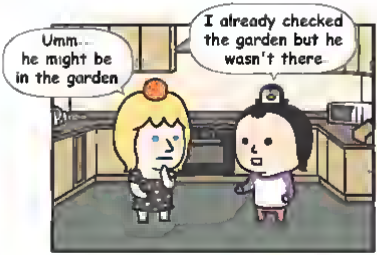
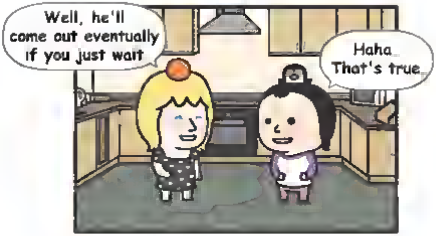
You still can't find him?
No, I can't see him.

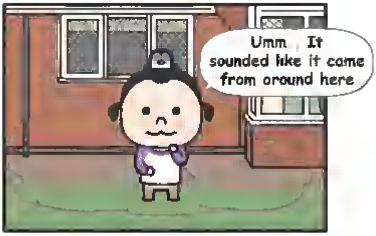


Umm... he might be in the garden
I already checked the garden but he wasn't there.



When I was almost about to give up looking for him,...

... I heard Mev call me from the garden near the kitchen through the window...



So I quickly went out to the garden and looked where the sound came from

But there was nothing

Mev~
Where are you?
I can't see you!!

!!!!!!!!!

What are you doing there?
It's camouflage. I was watching for ages
Where did you get this stuff?
It's packing material it was in a box in the garage. I tied it together with string.

<Mev's camouflage collection>

Where is Mev?

` Why? Seriously I wonder why
I'm taking these photos. '
